

SMC Graduate Online Resources

Online Theological Resources

This guide is a compilation of online links to theological information, modified from the site Theological Links found at: <http://www.theology.ie/theores.htm>.

*Saint Mark's College and Corpus Christi College do not take responsibility for the content held by the following associations or organizations, nor does this content necessarily reflect on the values and mandate of the colleges.

Vatican and Papacy

- <http://www.vatican.va/>: Vatican: Holy See – homilies, messages, encyclicals, letters, speeches by Pope Benedict. Encyclicals, apostolic letters, exhortations, constitutions, holies of the 9 most recent popes; Catechism and Canon Law.
- <http://www.vaticanlibrary.va/>: Vatican Library – some online documents.
- <http://papalencyclicals.net/>: Papal Encyclicals Online – recent and relevant Church documents.

Religious Orders

Jesuits

- <http://puffin.creighton.edu/jesuit/relations/>: Translated texts of The Jesuit Relations and Allied Documents 1610-1791.
- <http://www.ajcunet.edu/>: The Association of Jesuit Colleges.
- <http://jesuits.ca/>: Jesuits in English Canada
- www.jesuit.org: Society of Jesus in the United States.

Trappists, Benedictines, and Oblates

- <http://www.benedictine-oblates.org/chisiamo-en.php>: International Benedictine Oblates. Official – website of the organizing committee of the Benedictine Oblates World Congress. Documents/texts from previous congresses.
- www.abcu.info/: Association of Benedictine Colleges & Universities – links to other web resources.

Dominicans

- <http://curia.op.org>: The Order of Preachers – links to their document library.
- <http://www.dominicans.ca>: The Order of Preachers: Dominicans of Canada

Church Fathers and Important Figures

Aquinas

- <http://videoarchive.stthom.edu/>: University of St. Thomas Video Archives – online lectures, including a series of lectures given by Archbishop Michael Miller Newman.

Dr. John Micallef Memorial Library

Corpus Christi College / St. Mark's College

Newman

- www.newmanreader.org: The Newman reader – maintained by the National Institute for Newman Studies. Digital Newman library with complete works, study guides and links to other Newman websites.
- <http://newmanstudiesinstitute.org/library.aspx>: National Institute of Newman Studies.

Thomas Merton

- <http://www.vst.edu/main/programs/library/thomas-merton>: The Thomas Merton Reading Room at VST holds one of the most complete collections of Mertonalia in North America. Search 'MERTON' in their catalogue for all Merton materials.
- <http://www.merton.ca/index.html>: Thomas Merton Society of Canada – lists upcoming lectures on Merton held in local and national locations.
- <http://www.merton.org/>: Thomas Merton Center at Bellarmine University & International Thomas Merton Society – links to some published articles, list of recent/upcoming publications, as well as lists to other research collections.

Organizations

Knights

- www.kofc.org: Knights of Columbus – online courses, Catholic information services, resources for Knights leaders and newsletters.
- www.vcn.bc.ca/kofc/index.html: BC and Yukon Knights of Columbus – list of committees in BC, activities/events and resources for members.

Conference of Catholic Bishops

- www.usccb.org: United States Catholic Conference of Bishops – news releases, liturgical resources, Catholic News Services.
- <http://usccbmedia.blogspot.com/>: United States Catholic Conference of Bishops media blog.
- www.cccb.ca/site/: Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops – national liturgy office, media room, commissions, and committees.

Salt and Light

- <http://saltandlighttv.org/>: Salt and Light Catholic Media Foundation.

Study Sites, Texts and Libraries

Theology Library at Spring Hill College, Department of Theology (<http://www.shc.edu/theolibrary/>). Although this site, now hosted at Spring Hill College, has a simple style, it is very rich with over 8000 links.

• Categories include: Church, Evangelization, Justice, LGBTQ, Liturgy, Morality, Religion, Revelation, Spirituality, and Theology.

Religion On-Line: Full texts by recognized religious scholars (<http://www.religion-online.org/>). This site holds more than 6,000 full text articles and chapters by recognized and well known theologians. Site maintained by the Claremont School of Theology.

• Categories include: Old and New Testament, Churches and Society, Communication, Cultural Studies, Education, Ethics, Local Churches, History of Religion, Missions, Practical Theology, Religious Sociology, Social Issues, Theology, and Theologians.

Dr. John Micallef Memorial Library

Corpus Christi College / St. Mark's College

BELIEVE Religious Information Source (<http://mb-soft.com/believe/index.html>). This collection of roughly 1,500 articles by respected scholars touches on 700 religious subjects.

- Categories include: The Bible, Central and Technical Christian Subjects, Christian Structures, Denominations and Groups, Early Christian Manuscripts, The Early Church, New Testament Subjects, The Reformation, Statements of Faith, and Other Religions.

Christian Classics Ethereal Library (<http://www.ccel.org/>). Run by Calvin College, this site is a digital library of hundreds of classic Christian titles.

Internet Theology Links (<http://www.users.csbsju.edu/~eknuth/itr/index.html>). This guide was arranged according to major areas of concentration in St. John's School of Theology Seminary to assist searchers of theological and religious information on the Internet.

- Categories include: Church History and Historical Theology, General Reference, Interdisciplinary and General Areas, Liturgical Music, Liturgical Studies, Monastic Studies, Online Theological Periodicals, Pastoral Ministry, Religious Education, Scripture, Spanish Language and Culture, and Spirituality, Systematics.

Religious Studies Web Guide (<http://people.ucalgary.ca/~lipton/index.html>). This guide has collected various free internet resources for those involved in the academic study of religion.

- Categories include: Baha'i, Biblical Studies, Buddhism, Christianity, Confucianism, Hinduism, Islam, Jainism, Jewish-Christian Relations, Judaism, Latter-day Saints, Liturgy, Music, Mythology, Saints, Scientology, Sikhism, Shinto, Taoism, Women, and Zoroastrianism.

Internet Resources for Studying Judaism and Christianity

(<http://ccat.sas.upenn.edu/~jtreat/rs/resources.html>). Jay C. Treat is the Computing Director of Arts as well as an Adjunct Associate Professor of Religion at the University of Pennsylvania. He has compiled a list of online resources useful for the study of Judaism and Christianity.

- Categories include: Archaeology, Christian History and Literature, Islamic History and Literature, Jewish History and Literature, Journals, Language, Libraries, Paleography and Papyrology, Reference, Software, Texts and Translations, and Textual Criticism.

Project Wittenberg (<http://www.projectwittenberg.org/>). Here you will find short quotations, commentaries, hymns, statements of faith, theological treaties, biographies, and links to other places where words and images from the history of Lutheranism can be found.

- Categories include: Hymnals, The Book of Concord, The Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod, Mirror Sites, Research Reviews, Selected works of Martin Luther, Selected historic works from others, and Style Guides.

The Labyrinth: Resources for Medieval Studies

(<http://www8.georgetown.edu/departments/medieval/labyrinth/>). Hosted by Georgetown University, this site connects Medieval Studies scholars to databases, services, texts, and images on other servers around the world.

- Categories include: Architecture, Astronomy, Byzantine, Church History, Cosmology, Crusades, Ethics, Islam, Judaism, Latin, Law, Magic & Alchemy, Manuscripts, Music, Philosophy, and Theology.

Medieval Sourcebook (<http://www.fordham.edu/halsall/sbook.asp>). Hosted by Fordham College, Medieval Sourcebook is a collection of both excerpts and full texts of Medieval documents.

- Categories include: Byzantium, Crusades, Empire & Papacy, Intellectual Life, Jewish Life, Islam, Medieval Church, Reformation, Renaissance, Roman Church, and Social History.

ORB: Online Reference Book for Medieval Studies (<http://www.the-orb.net/>). This site connects Medieval Scholars to both articles and other reference sites. It is maintained by Medieval Scholars at the College of Staten Island.

- Categories include: Encyclopedias, Fiction, Film, Living History, Misconceptions, and Reference.